

Acting and Improv Classes

Grades 10 - 12

Thursdays 6:00 to 7:30 PM

January 17, 24, 31 and February 7

Learn what it takes to be a real actor! In this hands-on class, you will engage in improv scenarios, improve diction and projection, and more. No experience needed - just wear comfy clothing.

Taught by Kat Davis, former director of the Neighborhood Playhouse Junior School, NYC. Kat is an experienced high school teacher / director with many former students working as theatre professionals.

THIS IS A 4-WEEK CLASS AT THE METUCHEN PUBLIC LIBRARY

Space is limited and sign up is required. Register as follows:

Jan. 17 - <https://improv1-17-19.eventbrite.com>.

Jan. 24 - <https://improv1-24-19.eventbrite.com>.

Jan. 31 - <https://improv1-31-19.eventbrite.com>.

Feb. 7 - <https://improv2-7-19.eventbrite.com>.

Any questions, email mwhittington@lmxac.org.

Provided through a grant from Library Creative Drama, Inc.

The library reserves the right to record or photograph library users for publicity purposes, unless an individual files a Photo Opt out release form.