

Acting & Improv Classes

Grades 7 – 9

Mondays 6:00 to 7:30 pm

March 11, 18, 25 and April 8

Laugh while learning what it takes to be a real actor! In this hands-on class, you will engage in improv scenarios, learn exercises to improve diction and projection, and more. No experience needed - just wear comfy clothing. If you have a monologue or scene you want to work on, bring it along.

The classes are taught by Kat Davis, former director of the Neighborhood Playhouse Junior School, NYC. Kat is an experienced high school teacher/director and many of her former students are now working theatre professionals. Space is limited and sign up is required for each class. Register as follows:

Monday, March 11 <https://improv3-11.eventbrite.com>

Monday, March 18: <https://improv3-18.eventbrite.com>

Monday, March 25: <https://improv3-25.eventbrite.com>

Monday, April 8: <https://improv4-8.eventbrite.com>

Any questions, email mwhittington@lmax.org.

Provided through a grant from Library Creative Drama, Inc.

The Library reserves the right to record or photograph library users for publicity purposes; unless an individual files a photo opt release form.